French Southern Territories, comprising of several islands in the Indian Ocean, are isolated with a harsh climate, making technology and telecommunications development challenging. The territories have no indigenous population, with only temporary French military personnel, scientists, officials and support staff residing. The main regions include Kerguelen Islands, St. ...

Terres australes et antarctiques françaises; French Southern and Antarctic Territory; TAAF) 7781 (French Southern Territories)

The territories (excluding Antarctica) are managed by the French Southern Territories Reserve, which, as here, monitors the nesting of seabirds. Image : Camille Lin This status is all the more special because the TAAFs are governed by the principle of legislative speciality, meaning that French laws do not apply there unless an exception is made.
