Can I use two solar panels on a Jackery explorer 500?

Be aware that the max input power of the Explorer 500 is only 100W and so you cannot combine two solar panels for faster charging (which you can on the Explorer 1000). As mentioned, the Jackery Explorer 500 is a mid-ranged and mid-priced power station.

What is a Jackery 500?

Well it's actually a fairly simple proposition, but executed extremely well. The Jackery 500 is a lithium power pack, similar to the small power packs which you can use to charge up your phone when you're out and about and nowhere near a mains plug. The difference is in the size and range of outputs on offer with the Jackery offerings.
