We live between Dublin and Galway. I'm one of the lucky few who already has a Model S here in Ireland. It's a great car with extensive range that enables me to charge at home in Galway, drive around all day, regularly crossing the country, and even then only charging here and there. Travelling around Ireland is really convenient and given the public charging infrastructure, ...

Iq8 will act like an ordinary inverter with tesla powerwall/gateway and recharge your batteries while off grid. Your solar needs to be connected to the island side of the gateway and need a solar CT on the solar conductor. Last edited: Dec 8, 2023. CrazyRabbit Active Member.
