The Elbow Creek Energy Storage project is an integrated lithium-ion (li-ion) battery system that provides 2 MW of electric output, charged with renewable power generated by the Elbow Creek Wind Farm, located in West Texas. The battery system utilizes zero-emission wind generation to charge the batteries, which then discharge in ways that enhance the electric grid stability

ASTORIA MOBILE BATTERY STORAGE PROJECT In addition to the proposed replacement project, NRG is currently building a 1.5 MW/4 MWh mobile battery storage project in partnership with Con Edison to be based at the Astoria site. This mobile battery storage project is the first step in our plans to add significant energy storage to the Astoria facility.

The main objective of the project is to develop a novel ultra-light concrete that includes PCMs with both active/passive energy storage systems in non-residential buildings.. Next generation of prefabricated insulation material, NRG-Foam (TRL levels 5- 7). Impact to be achieved (at least): * 25% improved insulation capacity; * 10% higher energy-storage capacity;

On 21 April 2022 the M24 NRG-STORAGE project meeting of all project partners took place at TU Darmstadt - in hybrid form. For a long time only virtually, around 10 employees from 4 different partners were now able to participate in person at the meeting. The other project partner organisations were connected online.
