After discussions with the community about their needs and desired solutions, we agreed that the best solution to meet Goshen Academy's electricity demands would be a PV solar system with battery storage. The system would take advantage of Sierra Leone's equatorial sunshine as well as enable the school to use power at night via the batteries.

As such, the country can benefit significantly from solar PV (photovoltaic) and battery energy storage projects, particularly for healthcare facilities which require a continuous and stable power supply. ... Lead-acid batteries are only 80%-85% efficient, depending on the model and condition. This means that if there are 1,000 watts of solar coming into the batteries, there are only 800--850 watts available after the charging and discharging process. Meanwhile, lithium-ion batteries are more than 95% efficient.
